WHAT MUST WE DO TO INHERIT ETERNAL LIFE?

Many times in life we ask the question “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” The answer to this question is found in the parable of the Good Samaritan, when Jesus answers the expert in the law “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind”; and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Through this parable Jesus teaches three important things. Firstly, this parable teaches that lack of love is often easy to justify, even though it is never right. Many times we find different excuses for not to love, maybe we are too tired, or having a lot of things to do at home, having a lot to study, or maybe because of a lot of work. These are different attitudes that take over our action from loving our neighbour. These are attitudes which will surely do not help us to inherit eternal life. We can literally be like the priest or the Levite, we see with our eyes of people in need, but do not help.

Secondly, this parable teaches us that our neighbour is anyone of any race, creed, or social background who is in need. My neighbour is not only my family, my cousins, my next door neighbour, my neighbour is everybody. My neighbour is that person I meet in every present moment of my life (at school, at work, at sports activities, at church, and also on social media). So, our neighbour embraces all humanity, and it is expressed concretely in the person next to us. This is what we are to live in our life, to truly love each person.

MONTHLY REFLECTIONS

Thirdly, this parable teaches that love means acting to meet the person's need. Wherever you live, there are needy people close by. There is no good reason for refusing to help. So what must we do when we are with our neighbour? Are we capable of having such a big heart to love our neighbour? How can we come to possess such kindness as to consider even someone who is far away as our neighbour? We are to always LOVE our neighbour. Loving our neighbour is not an ordinary love, it is not a simple friendship. Loving our neighbour is the love that has been poured out into our hearts at baptism: this is the love that is the life of God himself, of the blessed Trinity. That is why we are to love everyone, because the love we give to others, is the love of God. This is how deep our love should be, because it is the love of God.

To love our neighbour, we are not to discriminate, we are not to love depending on if the person is kind or not, is beautiful or not, is a foreigner or a local person... we are to love everyone. To love our neighbour as Jesus loves us, is only possible by having this personal relationship with Jesus. It is through Jesus, that we be able to love in an authentic way, that is... to love our neighbour is to suffer with those who are suffering, rejoice with those who are rejoicing, carry the burdens of neighbour. This is what we have to do to be real witnesses of Christ and to inherit eternal life, we are not to be afraid to love our neighbour, because we would be loving Christ Himself.

The Golden Rule - Published: 23 January 2021

Do you know that a particular rule is found in the main religions? Do you know that through this particular rule, the world can really be in peace?

This particular rule is “Do unto others as you would have them do unto you”. This powerful rule, if truly lived by all the followers of the main religions, will truly bring peace to the world.

Let us all join together, all religions, and practice this particular rule, and pray, that we all live this rule in our daily lives.

If we “Do unto others as you would have them do unto you”, the world would be in peace.

Open up your heart—Published: 3 January 2021

Are you finding it difficult to accept Jesus in your life? Do you feel awkward whenever someone shares an experience about God’s love? Is your heart closed to receive Jesus?

If you are passing through a similar situation in your life, it is necessary that you open your heart to Jesus. There is nothing to be afraid of, for Jesus knows you in a personal way. There is no reason to be shy of Jesus, for He knows your character. All that Jesus wants for you is to open your heart for Him.

Having an open heart for Jesus, is the first step you can take to let Jesus enter into your life. By having an open heart, Jesus will mould your heart in a gentle way, just like a potter making a beautiful object out of clay.

Take this important step in your life. Open up your heart and let Him do the rest.

Human Dignity — Published: 17 January 2021

Have you ever heard the term human dignity? Do you know what the root of human dignity is?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that the dignity of the human person is rooted in his or her creation in the image and likeness of God. Endowed with a spiritual and immortal soul, intelligence and free will, the human person is ordered to God and called in soul and in body to eternal beatitude.

How wonderful and precious it is to know that all human beings are created in the image and likeness of God. How wonderful it would be if human dignity is really respected and totally valued in all the sphere of life.

But one wonders... is society respecting human dignity, with the consciousness that human beings are in the image and likeness of God? Respecting human dignity is only possible if one sees human beings in the image and likeness of God, which eventually leads to loving one's neighbor.

One Way — Published: 23 January 2021

There are different ways in life of how one can be fulfilled. In brief, fulfillment can be classified under two ways. These are the worldly fulfillment and God's fulfillment.

The worldly fulfillment are time-barred. How long would one be fulfilled by buying a new house? How long would one be fulfilled by going on a dream holiday? These would only last few days, maybe some weeks, the most a couple of months. Worldly fulfillment would not last forever, as everything in the world comes to an end.

God's fulfillment is different. It is not time-barred like what the world offers. God's fulfillment is eternal. God's fulfillment can be found by loving your neighbour, by visiting the sick, by treating employees with dignity, by loving your family, by loving your enemy and by other acts of love.

There is only one way for fulfillment... by loving God through your neighbour.

The aim of this ebook is to encourage you to give your 'Yes' to Him... that is, to follow Jesus. It is intended to increase your faith, to encourage you to trust in Him and to help you in your personal relationship with Jesus.

In this third publication of mine, the ebook is divided into five Chapters. It will mainly focus upon the 'Yes' of Mary, the Mother of Jesus. Also, it will focus upon the 'Yes' of Saint Paul, one of the greatest followers of Jesus.

This ebook will also include some of the missionary experiences I went through, and which to date have never been shared on any of my social networks. It includes my own 'Yes'... to follow Him, and what this 'Yes' meant to me.

Also, included in this ebook, is the episode when together with other missionaries we were crossing to the USSR in 1991 to evangelize and our van skidded and overturned on the side of the road! I will narrate this episode and also disclose to you what we had hidden in the van... this event happened during the 'Cold War'!

I hope that you find this ebook of interest to you, and that it reaches its aim of helping you in your spiritual growth, and in giving your 'Yes' to Him.

This book presents a journey towards 'The Light'. A journey to explore what, or rather, who 'The Light' is. A journey to experience 'The Light' in one's life. 'In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it'. This is who 'The Light' is. This is what 'The Light' is all about. This light is for you.

The experience of Christians who recognise and live in 'The Light' transforms them into a 'whole' person. This transformation makes them strong in their spiritual lives. They become people who are loving, forgiving, merciful and above all, persons who share the Good News with their neighbour.

Life is wonderful. Not everybody would agree with this statement. Every person experiences life in different ways. There are the good experiences and the not so good experiences that a person goes through in one's life.

Such experiences could lead a person to suffer a physical wound in one's life. These same experiences, and others, could also lead the person to suffer spiritual wounds in his life. Wounds which distance us from the love of God also distance us from loving our neighbour.

This book will take you through this journey. A journey of exploring the spiritual wounds one could suffer in one's life. Spiritual wounds which could be buried deep in one's inner self, making it difficult for the individual to love one's neighbour and to be a person of mercy. These spiritual wounds often hinder us from having a personal relationship with Jesus.

'Heal my Wounds' is the cry of every suffering person. In this book we shall also see how Jesus is the healer of our wounds.

Although the title of this book is 'Waking up the sleeping giant', it does not narrate a fairy tale about a beautiful princess who marries the most charming and rich prince, after succeeding to run away from a giant that himself wanted to marry the princess. This book is about the reality of the 'sleeping giant', and the consequence it brings to today's society.

'Waking up the sleeping giant' is a challenge to be taken up by many people. If this giant really wakes up, society will have a chance to experience a breath of fresh air that gives life a worthy cause and a meaningful reason to live. One might ask but who is this sleeping giant? What does this sleeping giant have to offer if upon waking, the world can be a better place to live in?

This sleeping giant can refer to you, to a family member of yours or maybe to some of your friends. The sleeping giant can represent Christians who, although they do good things in their lives, being active in the church and in the community around them, are still not doing God's will in their lives. The sleeping giant can be those of us who in the moment of truth to proclaim the Good News, to be witnesses in society and go against the current, eventually will not stand up as Christians and defend their morals and values.

The sleeping giant represents all those who proclaim that they are Christians, but through their lives hardly proclaim the Good News... they are 'lukewarm' in their faith.

The aim of this book is to reach out to this sleeping giant and to gently provoke and inspire the giant to wake up. This book propose to make this giant stand up and be a witness of God's love to society.

Over the past years, ever since I started interacting on social media by sharing my faith, writing short reflections about life has been uplifting to me and to the readers. By time, since 2012, I have embarked on writing monthly reflections and posting them in various social media platforms. These reflections which reflect my Christian faith have been read by numerous persons, persons who at times have also expressed their gratitude towards my thoughts.

This Christian book, 'Spiritual Reflections', gathers these monthly reflections written over the past two years. These reflections were based on my personal experience of life, on experiences of my friends and relatives; they are about different social issues, but above all these reflections were written in a way to increase the faith of those people following Christ or seeking Him in their life. The intention of these thoughts is for the reader to stop and meditate upon the reflection he picks, and to seek God through personal prayer.

I hope that you will enjoy them, and that they will help increase your faith, your relationship with God and with your neighbour. May you find peace in these reflections and in turn, share it with your family and friends. Thank you for reading this book.

Living in today's society brings with it various challenges for everyone. These challenges partly result from the evolvement over the years of the way people think, live and interact together. Different ideologies are widely expressed and practiced in the world. Cultures from all over the world are easily found in many countries, as people move and settle in different parts of the globe. Political views and the decisions taken by politicians also play an important part in how society develops and transforms itself through time. Society is also heavily impacted by the different ideas, beliefs, faiths and religions practiced by different groups of people, by individuals who do not always aim to live in peace, with respect, with love. Taking a snapshot of society would produce an image revealing what people practice and believe, and especially the nature of their culture and traditions, which at times may condition their lives. Society is the result of all this. With all the good and bad intentions, the goodwill and bitterness expressed by people, society portrays an image of who the people actually are, it portrays an image of what its people are really going through, and thus, of what fabric society is made up of

For me as a Christian, today's society has a very distorted image of God; an image that is blurred; it is a society that has lost its focus of who God really is, while at the same time searches for another god to connect to. It is a society confused by the different ideologies brought forward and practiced by a number of people in different ways throughout the world. These ideologies are not based on the love of God, or the values which Christians try to live and nourish in their lives. In my personal opinion these ideologies tend to exclude the genuine interest of a person in one's neighbour, and instead encourage one to focus on oneself, where greed dominates hence minimizing the possibility of true love of neighbour from being extended throughout the nations. Today's society lacks living in the image of God, lacks unconditional love, lacks the fresh air of true life. This book will mainly focus on man as being created on the image of God. It will try to explore and share my thoughts about what it means to live 'In His image'. If people truly lived 'In His image', there is a big chance that society would be a better place to live in. Harmony and peace would be the norm, as it is meant to be according to God's plan of love for mankind. People and nations would respect each other through reciprocal love.

I hope that this book will, in a modest and humble way, bring to you the joy, the fulfilment, the happiness that is lived by a person, whenever one understands more the beauty of living in the image of God. Living 'In His image' is living in His grace and peace, it is bringing and transmitting the love of God to others.

While I was writing my previous (published) book 'In His image', I felt a big desire in my heart to write a book about Mary... the Mother of Jesus. Mary is not only the Mother of Jesus... but also the Mother of all humanity, your Mother, my mother.

Reflecting upon the different talks about Mary that I have listened to over the years, the books I have read about her, the Bible where she is hardly mentioned, and reflecting about my personal experience of Mary, one thing that has overwhelmed me the most about Mary is, 'Her Silence'.

This book intends to deepen the relationship of the reader with Mary through 'Her Silence'... through the journey of her life, of her silence when being joyful, when being in pain, her silence in doing the will of God. On this journey, imagination will help the reader to discover what Mary went through in her silence. Most probably, what Mary went through in her silence, is what any other loving mother or father goes through when being with their children, when caring for and loving their children, in the good times and in the difficult times. Furthermore, Mary also represents all other persons who in different capacities take care of people in need.

I hope that this book will help the reader to discover Mary in one's life. Upon discovering her the reader will in return, through the love of Mary, discover Jesus in a personal way or deepen that experience which already exists. By discovering 'Her Silence', the reader will also discover in an intimate way the Love that God the Father has for each person in the world.

'Come to Me'. To whom? For what? Why?

To whom shall we go in situations when we are down, depressed, experiencing a lack of faith, in despair and in pain? Who can help us when we find ourselves in these situations, when life is difficult, and we are hurt by people around us? Who can help whenever one cries out of fear of being abused or ill-treated? Who can help all those who are caught in the dungeon of drugs, prostitution, corruption and other unfortunate situations faced by today's society? To whom shall we go in moments like these?

Throughout the different generations, ever since the fall of Adam and Eve, mankind has always been in search of peace in one's heart. The fall of mankind to the kingdom of darkness, brought suffering to existence. Mankind fell into the trap of darkness, and this darkness took control, only until light overpowered such darkness.

This 'light', called all mankind by their name, and in man's heart called out: 'Come to Me'. Jesus, the 'light', keeps searching for each person's heart, even if found in the pit of darkness. It infiltrates the hearts of all mankind through His love, by calling each person by name, saying 'Come to Me'.

The aim of this book is to encourage the reader to respond to this calling of Jesus, to listen to His voice and to realise that even if man is shrouded in the darkness of evil, His 'light' penetrates the human heart. 'Come to Me', are three simple words that if accepted by any person, by responding to the Lord, by accepting His invitation, in return will receive from Jesus His peace, love, comfort and care. So, it is up to the reader to respond to His calling... 'Come to Me'.

The story of the Road to Emmaus is a very interesting and well-known passage in the Gospel. It is a story that takes place just a couple of days after the crucifixion of Jesus. It recounts the episode of two men who were travelling the road to Emmaus, when a third man, out of nowhere, joined them on their way. Where had this man come from? Who was this mysterious man and what did he want? This book will go into the spiritual meaning behind the story of Emmaus. It will use the author's imagination of what went on during the walk of the three men, what was discussed and what the outcome of the journey was.

The third man of this story had a significant impact upon the spiritual life of the other two men. What was this spiritual impact all about? In today's society, is the story of the road to Emmaus, still significant? How can the story of the road to Emmaus play an important role for the evangelisation of the world, to share the Good News in the peripheries of today's society?

All this will be explored in this book. This book will bridge what happened 2,000 years ago on the road to Emmaus and translate that message, that spiritual experience for today's readers. Thank you for making time to read this book.
